Data Release Number (DRN): [REDACTED]

What Happens Next

- You will be notified when your FAFSA is processed.
- Your FAFSA information will be made available to your school(s), and they will use it to determine the aid you may be eligible to receive.
- Your school(s) will contact you if they need more information or when they are ready to discuss your financial aid award.
- If you have questions about your financial aid package, contact your school(s)

Eligibility Information

Estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC)= [REDACTED]

The EFC is a measure of how much you can contribute to the cost of your education. Schools use your EFC to determine your federal student aid eligibility.

The EFC is not how much aid you will receive or how much you have to pay for college.

Based on the eligibility criteria you may be eligible for the following:

Direct Stafford Loan Estimate - $7,500

You may also be eligible to receive other federal, state, or institutional grants, scholarships, and/or work-study.

In addition, you should learn about federal tax benefits for education <https://studentaid.gov/resources/tax-benefits>, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).
